Atlantic City.

Special Correspondence of The Star.

ATLANTIC CITY, July 31.—Atlantic City misses its usual summer colony of diplomats. While the big war in Europe has kept many habitual globe trotters at home and sent them to Atlantic City, there is a dearth of the usual notables of the diplomatic service both from this country and abroad who have been prone in the past to spend all or part of the summer in Atlantic City. For this reason the arrival of the ambassador from Brazil at the Traymore this week was considered worthy of notice, as was that of Senator Casper, minister from Cuba, at the Chelsea. It might be added that a number of Washington officials have made and canceled reservations at big hotels several times as the strain of important diplomatic questions raised by the war pressed duties upon them and prevented the taking of vacations.

Unofficial Washington has contributed heavily, however, to the big crowd here ready to celebrate the first August Sunday of the year. Conservative calculations claim that close to 300,000 people will be ready to stroll the Boardwalk or enter the breakers tomorrow, and officials in charge of the bathing begrudge the space taken by the rising tide which crowds their thousands of charges up on the beach. Representative Sydney Mudd of Maryland was among the visitors this week. He registered at the Marlborough-Blenheim, which is his usual stopping place. Count de Clesner, bearer of a Bourbon title, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Corrie of Paris, who are at the Marlborough-Blenheim. Dr. John H. Driscoll and J. Hendrick, Gen. Robert M. McWade of Washington is at the Alamac for an extended summer stay. Mr. and Mrs. William R. Sands are here from Washington. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kelly and their son were among the Washington people on the Boardwalk during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Wilton came from Washington this week to visit Mrs. G. Wilton Kelly at her cottage in Ventnor. Gen. Charles E. Magoon, former governor of the Canal Zone, is at the Traymore.

Capt. A. H. Melrose of the army was among the newcomers at the Ostead. Mrs. A. L. Mills, wife of Brig. Gen. Mills, will extend her stay at the Ostead for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Mason of Washington are at the Pennhurst this week. Miss Katherine Decie has joined Washington friends at the Dennis. Odell S. Smith and John Louis Smith registered at the Dennis at the Dennis this week.

S. Dallas Tucker and W. J. Young arrived at the Arlington from Washington this week. Mrs. H. C. Irwin of Washington is at the Arlington, accompanied by Miss Marjorie Irwin and Mrs. J. H. Falls of Mount Rainier. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Malden and Miss Martha Clark are recent additions to the Washington colony at the Arlington.

Lieut. U. W. Conway of the navy is at the Traymore. L. B. C. Delaney and A. Berliner registered from Washington at the same hotel.

Mrs. N. R. Terry and Miss A. E. Terry have joined the Washington colony at the New England. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gallagher, Miss Mary Mayfield, and Miss Helen M. Benton are among the newly arrived Washington folk at the same hotel.

GONE TO CALIFORNIA.

MISS ELIZABETH BURKE, daughter of the United States treasurer and Mrs. John Burke.

Cape May, N. J.

Special Correspondence of The Star.

CAPE MAY, July 31.—A number of members of the New York Yacht Club were entertained at dinner this evening at the Cape May Yacht Club by former Commodore J. Clifford Wilson. The Cape May Yacht Club was the first organized at Cape May, but owing to the fact that there are a large number of yachtsmen here a second club was organized three years ago, which is known as the Corinthian Yacht Club. This latter club has a handsome thirty thousand dollar clubhouse on the Cape May harbor, and by reason of its nearness to the harbor entrance it is naturally visited by more yachtsmen than the old Cape May club. Both are excellently appointed and good times are had at them.

Commodore W. Griscom Cox of the Corinthian Yacht Club gave a dance to-night and Wednesday night he gave a dinner of twenty-four covers. Commodore Cox has donated a cup, which will be raced for August 14 on a fifty-mile course laid off to sea, and which will be open to the members of all yacht clubs along the Atlantic coast. One of the conditions of the race is that the winner shall retain the cup and that it must be raced for each succeeding summer over the same course.

This calls to mind that there is another Cape May cup, which was raced for on the ocean course in 1915, and has been lifted from time to time by yachts of international fame and is now held in the New York club. This cup has not been challenged for several summers. It was originally donated by James Gordon Bennett and has been carried to England and back again to America.

This week has been filled with golfing events. Monday the guests of the Newport Golf Club took place, and Wednesday a bogey tournament was held, which was participated in by a large number of prominent golfers, including William P. Breen of Fort Wayne, Ind. This afternoon the men's handicap tournament was played, and during the playing the women's association gave a tea, which, owing to the fact that it is the height of the season, was the most largely attended social affair of the summer.

Mr. Hannis Taylor is a visitor here, and has his son, Hannis Taylor, Jr., with him.

W. E. Tayloe of Washington is enjoying his vacation at the Hotel Cape May.

Among Washingtonians staying at the Star Villa are Mrs. C. Cottman and her son, Joseph L. Cottman.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Clephane of Washington are spending the summer here. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Carter of Washington are spending the summer at a cottage on North street. Edwin O. Mann of Washington joined friends here last Saturday and is passing a fortnight here.

Miss Bertha Padgett and her sister, Mrs. John Blumer of Washington, are enjoying their summer vacation at a hotel here.

James Moore of Washington is staying at a beach front hotel for a fortnight. Mrs. Florence J. Fansworth has joined the Washington colony here. In the dance at the Red Mill last Saturday evening for the cup donated by Mayor William M. Cassidy for the best fancy, there was a spirited contest, but Miss Eloise Orme of Washington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Orme, who danced with Mr. William P. Chunn of Baltimore, was the winner.

Old Sweet Springs.

Special Correspondence of The Star.

OLD SWEET SPRING, Va., July 31.—To the true lover of golf the links offer a strong appeal. The bunkers and hazards being nature-placed make the one of the sportiest courses in the country. Woe betide the unwary at the foot of a careless drive there is fatal. So far the season's record is held by M. N. Paxton with a score of 27.

The juniors are very busy rehearsing a play which they will soon produce for sweet charity. It is their own version of "Little Women" and the characters have been chosen with great care.

The Thursday Evening Club was entertained by Mr. John D. Lewis, supper being served in the grill. Among those present were Miss Bessie Beall Anderson, Miss Laura Landers, Miss Jennie Day Froudf, Mr. R. C. Stokes, Jr., and Mr. James B. Sullivan.

Mrs. H. M. Holderness was hostess at morning porch party in honor of Mrs. Hudson Kelly and Miss Adelaide Mayo.

Mrs. J. D. Bridger entertained at cards with supper in the grill. The guests of honor were Mrs. S. B. Avis, Mrs. C. W. Robertson and Mrs. F. H. Proudfitt. Mrs. W. Robertson gave a card party in honor of Mrs. W. D. Wyville, Mrs. Norborn Gray being the prize winner. Mrs. F. J. Waddell was another hostess of the week.

Mrs. W. H. Trabue, Miss Elizabeth Trabue, Mrs. John Carmichael, Mrs. W. K. Coppenhaver and Mr. Philip Coppenhaver made a motor trip to White Sulphur Springs, stopping en route at Tanglewood Inn.

Miss Laura Landers, Miss Elizabeth Trabue, Miss Lillian Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Mossman made a horseback expedition to the top of Peters mountain and saw the full glory of the moon rise.

Mr. S. B. Avis has joined his family at their cottage here. Mr. S. Stringfellow of Klumbeck, Va., was the guest of Mr. Avis.

Braddock Heights.

Special Correspondence of The Star.

At the Clayton cottages are Miss Helen Murphy, Mr. Dean Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. H. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Curtis and the Mrs. Sigmund, Mr. and Mrs. Engle and Miss E. Ref of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Gemeny and Miss Alma Gemeny of Washington are registered at the Kefauver cottage. Mrs. Pittman and Mrs. Edward Curran of Washington are staying at the Delmont.

Mr. Davis of Washington is a guest at Warbur cottage.

Washington guests at Camp Schley Inn are Mr. and Mrs. Newlander, Master Harry Teiler and Mrs. M. V. Helton. Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Freyer of Washington recently arrived at the Seachrist Mountain House.

Washington guests at the Nibrah are Mrs. Crump, Miss Crump, Mrs. West, Mrs. Dorothy West, Miss Evelyn West, Mrs. Ball, Mrs. Thomas Stone, Miss E. E. Stone, Miss Evelyn Stone, Mr. Walter Scott Mitchell and Mr. Wallace U. Malcarne.

Plans are being made by the Braddock Heights Porch Club for the erection of an archway, made of native stone, and intersection of the colony road with the national pike. A sign, lighted at night, is to indicate the presence of the summer colony.

A. Harbin of Washington is a member of the committee in charge.
